2012
Greeting through Art
Projecting the Planet into the Future

UNESCO GREETING CARDS:

As is the case every year, we combine art with our efforts by publishing the works of contemporary artists.

We hope that you appreciate them and, in this way contribute to the sharing of current artistic creation.

Proceed of these publishings go to UNESCO's programs for Education, Science and Culture:

- Education the indispensable foundation for any development in personal, social and economic.
- Natural science, social science and Humanities, an essential tool for development.
- Culture, the soul of development.
- Communication, to exchange, share and act.

WE ALSO OFFER:

• CARDS ON CATALOGUE (on paper and digital):

Other greeting cards illustrated by contemporary artists, are available on our website: www.unesco-greetingscards.org
(Our activity > Greeting cards > Catalogue and E-cards).

• CUSTOMIZED CARDS AND CALENDARS:

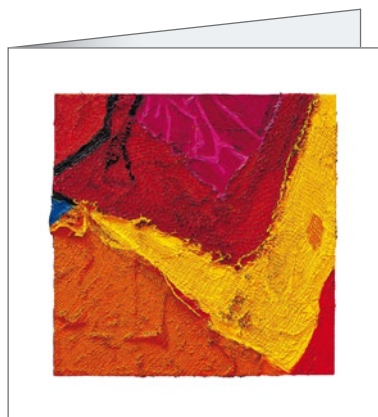

In addition to this catalogue, we also create your customized card for your exclusive use, on paper and digital.

To benefit from this offer, all you have to do is choose from among our selection of contemporary artworks which includes more than 700 artists of all nationalities and styles. This collection of contemporary art is intended for your use. The collection includes more than 7,000 original works to illustrate your communication (greeting cards, calendars, brochures), and also for the creation of cultural events.
